A monthly publication dedicated to building the spirit of community in Nahant and beyond the Causeway.

November 2013

From the Editor

Happy Thanksgiving!

I want to thank everyone in Nahant, financial supporters or not, for their goodwill. Since March 1994, I have collected and presented the “news” from our community. In 2011, I tried to move us into the world of the internet. In September 2013, I brought back the printed newspaper, due to popular demand.

As financial support builds, through advertisers, subscribers and sponsors, I hope to reconstruct the home delivery crew. For now, only those who subscribe will receive a mailed newspaper.

The cost of $50 per year to subscribe, may seem like a lot to some, but when you consider the cost of envelopes, labels, list maintenance and label printing, postage, envelope stuffing and taking them to the post office, $50 a year is a bargain to get the monthly news in your mailbox.

During the upcoming holiday season, please consider giving a gift subscription to yourself, your family, or a shut-in neighbor or loved one. labor, rest of the community.

See page 7 for subscriber information and a list of current subscribers and sponsors, to date. I hope all will subscribe.

Thank you very much.

Nahant Community Breakfast Hosts John Nardizi on Friday, November 1st

The Nahant Community Free Breakfast will be held on Friday, November 1, at the Nahant Village Church, with a presentation by Nahant resident John Nardizi. John is an investigator, lawyer, and author of crime novel “Telegraph Hill.” He will be reading selected passages of his book, and discuss how he started his career as a Public Investigator at a legendary San Francisco detective agency. He will also talk about how his work in the tough Tenderloin section impacted his writing.

The free breakfast held at the Nahant Village Church will be served at 8:00 a.m., followed by the presentation at 8:30. All are welcome. Plan to come and bring friends and family for an informative presentation, a hearty breakfast (serving farm fresh eggs), and wonderful camaraderie. Arrangements for transportation for elders to and from the breakfast may be made by calling the Tiffany Room a few days in advance of the breakfast at 781-581-7557

Ellingwood Chapel Concert Series Begins November 10th

On November 10th a very special concert called “Music from Terezin: Art, Remembrance and Hope” will be performed by four members of the Boston Symphony playing as the Hawthorne String Quartet. The music to be played was composed in Terezin, a Nazi concentration camp located near Prague, under the most difficult circumstances imaginable. Terezin was used as a transit camp to Auschwitz and Treblinka and as a “show camp” for the International Red Cross and other visitors. When international visitors came to Terezin they saw a concert by prisoners, showing how humanely Jews were being treated.

The Nahant Woman's Club

Happy Autumn to all! Our Tides fundraiser in September went very well. We had a terrific Q&A with the lovely owner, Mike O'Callahan. We all ate very well and participated in great raffles. A fun time was had by all and we raised money for our Scholarship fund. We also had a splendid plein air art class with our very own Carolyn Jundzilo. You are the best, Carolyn!

In October, we had a brilliant meeting with the most gracious, Trent Shute and his delicious Kettle Soups. Very informative and yummy. We continued our theme of good food and fellowship at our next meeting.

Our next meeting is our Veterans Day meeting. The Greater Woman's Club Federation's Representative for Veterans, Ms. Loraine Gorham, will be coming to speak to us. We will serve our traditional clam chowder and deserts. The meeting will begin at 11:00 a.m., at The Nahant Village Church, on November 12th. Please bring feminine products, bubble bath/shower gel, etc., for the female veterans in The Chelsea Soldiers Home.

Finally, the HOLIDAY FAIR IS COMING! November 30th, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., at the Town Hall. We really, really need you. We need you to bake (can, preserve, create!) and we need you to help out on the day. We really need this fundraiser--it is our main fundraiser of the year. All the money we raise goes into our scholarship fund. Last year for the first time, we were able to increase our high school scholarship amount and also sponsor a girl through the summer program of Girls Inc., Lynn. Let's make this year as good, or even better! Please think what you can contribute to the event. We NEED you!

Let Others Eat, Too, During Pie in the Sky Fundraiser!

This Thanksgiving, buy a delicious apple, pecan, pumpkin, or sweet potato pie for $25 and pick it up on Tuesday, November 27th, at the Nahant Village Church. This event is to benefit Community Servings, a Massachusetts food and nutrition program that provides services to individuals and families living with critical and chronic illnesses. For the cost of a single pie, Community Servings will be able to provide a week's worth of free, home-delivered meals to an individual who is battling a critical illness such as HIV/AIDS, cancer, diabetes, or MS. Since 1993, Community Servings has raised $6.5 million to feed the critically ill.

Now entering its 21st year, Pie in the Sky involves more than 150 of Greater Boston's best chefs, bakers and caterers who donate their time, talent and resources to provide delicious Thanksgiving Pies. Equally amazing, over 600 volunteers work hard throughout the fall to sell, organize and distribute more than 15,000 pies. Pie in the Sky 2012 raised over $575,000 with $.93 of every dollar raised going directly to Community Servings' programs

Pie sales are taking place now through the deadline, Saturday, November 23rd, 2013. To order a pie or make a donation, call or email Amy Dow, Nahant Village Church, 617-678-8520, ikors92@yahoo.com; or Lissa Stempek, Nahant Village Church, 339-440-4067, lissa88@comcast.net, or visit www.pieinthesky.org for more information. The Nahant Dory Club News

Congratulations to Rex and Austin Antrim for again winning the Town Class National Championships held in early August on Spofford Lake near Keane, New Hampshire.

The event was run over a three day period and had one of the closest finishes in the recent history of the regatta. In seven races with one throw-out allowed, the Antrims finished with 18 points on the low point scoring system. They were followed by Marblehead's Peter Maitland, with 20 points and Tip O'Neil, 20.2. Rex and Austin had one first place finish, three seconds, a fifth and a sixth. Nick Strange from the Dory Club finished in eighth with 40 points and Pete Dickenson in twelfth place with 58. A total of twenty boats from Nahant, Marblehead, Touisset Point, RI and Spofford Lake participated. Next year's Nationals will be hosted by Marblehead, while Nahant will host the 2015 races which include a team race between the fleets for the Walsh Cup. Rumor has it that Rex was awarded a special award known as "The Drunken Sailor Award." Apparently it had been retired for several years but was revived to honor Rex. In the past it had been awarded to the sailors at the Nationals who did the most foolish/crazy thing. It had been retired for several years but was revived to honor Rex. As much as we would like to tell you what he did to be so honored, our lips are sealed.

The eighth King of Clubs Regatta hosted by the Dory Club was won this year by the sailors from the Lynn Yacht Club. As in the past the first seven boats from each club scored. Unfortunately the Swampscott Yacht Club did not have the minimum seven boats and therefore did not have a final score. The Lynn Yacht Club as in the past had several members of the Nahant Dory Club racing for them. Several new 2013 Lynn members including Ed Tarlov and Peter Davis ensured the victory. Nahant's Sandy Burton finished first, followed by Lynn's Wallie Everest, Peter Davis, Ed Tarlov and Jody Graul. Nahant's Bob Cusack was sixth with Swampscott's Paul Smith seventh and Lynn's Chuck Reynolds eighth. The other racers in order were Jeff Mayer Lynn, Ulf Westhoven Swampscott, Charles Schepens Nahant, Mike Doran Nahant, Arthur Ronan Lynn, Mark Patek Nahant, John Miranda Lynn, Greg Deterding Lynn and Dan Skrip Nahant. Next year Lynn will host the ninth regatta. Final racing results for all classes will be in the December issue.

Early in the season, the Club hosted author Michael Tougias who spoke about his latest book "A Storm too Soon." If you have not read it we suggest you do. Michael is becoming known in literary circles as the Stephen King of maritime horror stories. His next effort is about the loss of HMS Bounty during Hurricane Sandy and the rescue of twelve of fourteen members of her crew.

As in the past, the Nahant Lions Club, Garden Club, Women's Club, Council on Aging and Nahant Sailing Program used the clubhouse for various events. In addition the USCG Auxiliary conducted an educational program for young boaters between the ages of twelve and sixteen. Upon completion of the course and passing the examinations these young boaters were permitted to operate a power boat without an adult aboard.

With the end of the boating season upon us, the Club would like to thank Wharfingers Paul English, Mike Manning, Harbormaster Rob Tibbo, his assistants, and the Nahant Police and Public Works Departments for their continued cooperation.

Need Medical Equipment? The Nahant COA has an inventory of emergency equipment to lend or give away. We have walkers, shower chairs, canes and even a wheelchair. No one in Nahant should have to buy these things. Call us at 781-581-7557.

American Legion News

To update all on our Post activities through the year, here is a brief recap. In March, we held a very successful celebration commemorating Evacuation Day, the day forever etched in history as the day the British Regulars withdrew from Boston to avoid the cannons of General Washington.

In April, we were proud to award a $500 scholarship to Nahant resident Aristana Scourtas for her very excellent essay on "What our Flag means to me." All of the essay submissions were forwarded on to the American Legion State for another potential scholarship, however sadly, none were selected.

In May, we participated in the Town's annual Memorial Day ceremony following with an open house at our Post quarters, which was well received.

A Flag Retirement Ceremony was held in June, followed by the Hoopa Nickel race in August. PS: Any and all Nahant Korean Veterans, please call Bill at the American Legion.

Nahant's 18th Annual Christmas Parade of Lights 2013

Here we are again, November already! The holiday season is upon us! Thanksgiving is coming up fast, a time to say thanks and reflect on the good times we've had over the past year and remember those less fortunate than us.

Then, we jump right into the Christmas season, lights and decorations to be put up, shopping to do, Whew! Where does the time go?

Plans are already in gear for the 18th Annual Christmas Parade. This year the Parade steps off on Dec. 21st., at 6:00 p.m. All are welcome to take part, enter a truck, or a float, or just come and watch.

The fundraiser is scheduled for Dec. 14th, at the Tides Restaurant, from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. Raffle tickets for the Bermuda Cruise are now on sale. The Bermuda cruise is scheduled for June 13th, 2014, for 7-days, a balcony cabin for 2. Proceeds from the parade go to local charities and scholarships for Nahant high school students graduating and going on to higher education.

So, mark your calendar, take a deep breath and enjoy the ride through the holiday season! Happy Holidays from the Christmas Parade Committee

A Silent Surprise—With Music!

On Saturday, January 25th, the Nahant Village Church, will be showing a silent film. Which silent film? That's the surprise!

Famed organist/pianist, Robert Humphreville, will select the film and play live, improvised music. As far back as 1895, showings of silent films always featured live music. Music was considered essential, contributing to the atmosphere and giving the audience vital emotional cues. Rob has given numerous silent movie performances at Harvard and elsewhere. He was one of two interim organists for a year and a half at the Village Church before Colin was appointed music director. Rob also substituted this past summer, as organist at the Village Church and at Ellingwood Chapel.

The silent movie will be preceded by a potluck supper starting at 5:00 p.m., with the movie being shown at 6:30. The event is free and ALL are welcome. So mark your calendars and plan to spend a night at the not-so-silent movies.

The Nazis even made a film about the camp. None of the composers survived the camps. The Nazis thought they were destroying them for all time.

Even under the worst conditions an artist does not cease to be who he, or she, fundamentally is. Camp inmates had been discovered secretly performing concerts for other prisoners. Not only did performers perform, but composers wrote. Art is an expression of the human spirit that even the Nazis at their worst could not completely suppress. But artists must create and, thanks to Mark Ludwig, BSO violist and founder of the Terezin Music Foundation, this music survives. Had their lives not been cut short, these composers would have become heirs to Mendelssohn and Mahler, colleagues of Kurt Weill and Leonard Bernstein. Their music deserves to be heard.

I am happy to announce that our treasured Nahant artist, Norman Laliberte, has agreed to create a special work for this occasion. There is more to come as we seek to persuade you to join us on November 10th. Please make reservations or inquiries to Jim Walsh, Ellingwood Chapel Concert Series, Nahant Historical Society, 781-367-2007.
